

PARISH EUCHARIST
FOR FOURTH SUNDAY
BEFORE LENT
AND HOLY BAPTISM OF
FRANK & RALPH PAULS

09TH FEBRUARY 2025
9:30AM

Welcome to Holy Trinity Church, Prestwood for our Parish Eucharist this morning as we celebrate the fourth Sunday before Lent. Today we welcome Frances and Michael, their family and friends, as they bring Frank & Ralph for baptism. Baptism marks the beginning of a journey with God that continues for the rest of our lives.

In the service we use symbols to paint a picture of what baptism means. The sign of the cross, which reminds us how Christ died for us. There is water, a sign of life and represents the cleansing and refreshing love of God. There is oil, a sealing with the gifts of the Holy Spirit, a sign of blessing. There is a candle, reminding us of the light of Christ, which also reminds us that we walk in the light of Christ for the rest of our lives.

Our worship celebrates Christ's love for all people.

We find rest in God's presence.

The Holy Spirit empowers our lives.

We enjoy building a loving community.

We believe in inclusive church – a church which celebrates and affirms every person and does not discriminate. We will continue to challenge the church where it continues to discriminate against people on grounds of disability, economic power, ethnicity, gender, gender identity, learning disability, mental health, neurodiversity, or sexuality. We believe in a Church which welcomes and serves all people in the name of Jesus Christ; which is scripturally faithful; which seeks to proclaim the Gospel afresh for each generation; and which, in the power of the Holy Spirit, allows all people to grasp how wide and long and high and deep is the love of Jesus Christ.

Children's Church

Children going to Children's Church leave together. The children will return to church in time for communion. All babies, toddlers and children are welcome to stay in church or go to Children's Church or the crèche.

A toilet with disabled and baby changing facilities is available in the front and left corner of the church.

If you don't already give regularly, you can support us by using the contactless donation box opposite the door as you enter or leave the church. To give regularly please take a Parish

Giving Scheme leaflet from the rack, or sign up to the Parish Giving Scheme by scanning the QR Code to get started:

Private prayer of preparation

Grant, O Lord, that through our worship this day we may be awakened to the wonder of thy love for us; that familiar words may shine with new meaning and that the habit of worship may open our eyes to see your loveliness. Leslie D Weatherhead

This service will be live-streamed to Facebook.

Processional Hymn

Please stand
(CHON 450)

Morning has broken
Like the first morning,
Black bird has spoken
Like the first bird.
Praise the singing!
Praise for the morning!
Praise for them springing Fresh from the Word!

Sweet the rain's new fall
Sunlit from heaven,
Like the first dewfall
On the first grass.
Praise for the sweetness
Of the wet garden,
Sprung in completeness
Where His feet pass.

Mine is the sunlight!
Mine is the morning.
Born of the one light
Eden saw play!
Praise with elation,
Praise ev'ry morning,
God's recreation
Of the newday!

Frank & Ralph's parents and godparents approach.

The president addresses the congregation.

Jesus said, 'Let the children come to me. Do not stop them'. We thank God for Frank & Ralph who have come to be baptized today. Christ loves them and welcomes them into his Church.

So I ask you all:

Will you support these children as they begin their journey of faith?

All: We will.

Will you help them to live and grow within God's family?

All: We will.

The president then addresses the parents and godparents

God knows each of us by name and we are his. Parents and godparents, you speak for Frank & Ralph today. Will you pray for them, and help them to follow Christ?

The parents and godparents reply

We will.

The children are invited to the altar to take a cross from the basket
Loving God, may Children's Church be full of your presence and your joy. May all of us discover your love for us and your care for your children in our worship today. Amen.

The Liturgy of the Word

Please sit

Isaiah 6.1-8

In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lofty; and the hem of his robe filled the temple. Seraphs were in attendance above him; each had six wings: with two they covered their faces, and with two they covered their feet, and with two they flew. And one called to another and said:

‘Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts;
the whole earth is full of his glory.’

The pivots on the thresholds shook at the voices of those who called, and the house filled with smoke. And I said: ‘Woe is me! I am lost, for I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips; yet my eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts!’

Then one of the seraphs flew to me, holding a live coal that had been taken from the altar with a pair of tongs. The seraph touched my mouth with it and said: ‘Now that this has touched your lips, your guilt has departed and your sin is blotted out.’ Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, ‘Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?’ And I said, ‘Here am I; send me!’

This is the word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

Hymn

Please remain seated
(REH 445)

Bright the vision that delighted once the sight of Judah’s seer; sweet the countless tongues united to entrance the prophet’s ear.

Round the Lord in glory seated cherubim and seraphim filled his temple, and repeated
each to each the alternate hymn:

'Lord, thy glory fills the heaven;
earth is with its fullness stored;
unto thee be glory given,
Holy, Holy, Holy Lord.'

Heaven is still with glory ringing,
earth takes up the angels' cry,
'Holy, Holy, Holy,' singing,
'Lord of Hosts, the Lord most high.'

With his seraph train before him,
with his holy Church below,
thus unite we to adore him,
bid we thus our anthem flow:

"Lord, thy glory fills the heaven;
earth is with its fullness stored;
unto Thee be glory given,
Holy, Holy, Holy Lord.'

Richard Mant (1776-1848)

1 Corinthians 15.1-11

Now I should remind you, brothers and sisters, of the good news that I proclaimed to you, which you in turn received, in which also you stand, through which also you are being saved, if you hold firmly to the message that I proclaimed to you—unless you have come to believe in vain.

For I handed on to you as of first importance what I in turn had received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the scriptures, and that he was buried, and that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers and sisters at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have died. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to someone untimely born, he appeared also to me. For I am the least of the apostles, unfit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace towards me has not been in vain. On the contrary, I worked harder than any of them—though it was not I, but the grace of God that is with me. Whether then it was I or they, so we proclaim and so you have come to believe.

This is the word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

The Gospel Reading

Please stand

The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St Luke.

All: Glory to you, O Lord.

Luke 5.1-11

Once while Jesus was standing beside the lake of Gennesaret, and the crowd was pressing in on him to hear the word of God, he saw two boats there at the shore of the lake; the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets. He got into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, and asked him to put out a little way from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, 'Put out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch.' Simon answered, 'Master, we have worked all night long but have caught nothing. Yet if you say so, I will let down the nets.' When they had done this, they caught so many fish that their nets were beginning to break. So they signalled to their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both boats, so that they began to sink. But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, 'Go away from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man!' For he and all who were with him were amazed at the catch of fish that they had taken; and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. Then Jesus said to Simon, 'Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching people.' When they had brought their boats to shore, they left everything and followed him.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

All: Praise to you, O Christ.

The Liturgy of Baptism The Decision

Before the Paschal Candle Frank & Ralph are addressed through their parents and godparents.

We all wander far from God and lose our way: Christ comes to find us and welcomes us home. In baptism we respond to his call. Therefore I ask:

Do you turn away from sin?

I do.

Do you reject evil?

I do.

Do you turn to Christ as Saviour?

I do.

Do you trust in him as Lord?

I do.

Signing with the Cross

Frank Robin Loots, Christ claims you for his own. Receive the sign of his cross.

Ralph Robin Loots, Christ claims you for his own. Receive the sign of his cross.

The parents and godparents sign Frank & Ralph with the cross.

Do not be ashamed of Christ. You are his for ever.

All: Stand bravely with him.
Oppose the power of evil,
and remain faithful to Christ to the end of your life.

May almighty God deliver you from the powers of darkness, and lead you in the light and obedience of Christ.

All: Amen.

The baptismal party moves to the font.

Prayer over the Water

Praise God who made heaven and earth,

All: who keeps his promise for ever.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All: It is right to give thanks and praise.

We praise you, loving Father, for the gift of your Son Jesus. He was baptized in the river Jordan, where your Spirit came upon him and revealed him as the Son you love. He sent his followers to baptize all who turn to him. Now, Father, we ask you to bless this water, that those who are baptized in it may be cleansed in the water of life, and, filled with your Spirit, may know that they are loved as your children, safe in Christ for ever.

All: Amen.

Profession of Faith

Let us affirm, together with Frank & Ralph who are being baptized, our common faith in Jesus Christ:

Do you believe and trust in God the Father, source of all being and life, the one for whom we exist?

All: I believe and trust in him

Do you believe and trust in God the Son, who took our human nature, died for us and rose again?

All: I believe and trust in him

Do you believe and trust in the Holy Spirit, who gives life to the people of God and makes Christ known in the world?

All: I believe and trust in him

This is the faith of the Church.

All: This is our faith. We believe and trust in one God, Father Son and Holy Spirit.

The Baptism

Frank Robin Loots, I baptise you in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Ralph Robin Loots, I baptise you in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

The parents take Frank & Ralph and say:
Frank & Ralph are a precious gift. We thank God for them, and commit ourselves to care for them.

May God, who has received you by baptism into his Church, pour upon you the riches of his grace, that within the company of Christ's pilgrim people you may daily be renewed by his anointing Spirit, and come to the inheritance of the saints in glory.

All: Amen.

Everyone returns to their seats.

The Intercessions

Please sit or kneel

In the power of the Spirit and in union with Christ, let us pray to the Father.

During the prayers:

Lord in your mercy ...

All: ... hear our prayer.

At the end of the prayers:

Merciful Father...

All: ... accept these prayers, for the sake of your Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen

The Liturgy of the Sacrament

The Peace

Please stand

Frank, Ralph and their parents stand at the chancel step.

There is one Lord, one faith, one baptism: Frank & Ralph, by one Spirit we are all baptized into one body.

All: We welcome you into the fellowship of faith; we are children of the same heavenly Father; we welcome you.

The risen Christ came and stood among his disciples and said, 'Peace be with you.' Then were they glad when they saw the Lord. Alleluia.

The peace of the Lord be always with you

All: And also with you.

Let us offer one another a sign of peace.

Offertory Hymn

(NEH 436)

Praise, my soul, the King of heaven;
to his feet thy tribute bring;
ransomed, healed, restored,
forgiven,
who like me his praise should sing?
Praise him! Praise him!
Praise the everlasting King.

Praise him for his grace and favour to our fathers in distress;
praise him still the same for ever,
slow to chide and swift to bless!
Praise him! Praise him !
Glorious in his faithfulness.

Father-like, he tends and spares us;
well our feeble frame he knows;
in his hand he gently bears us,
rescues us from all our foes.
Praise him! Praise him!
Widely as his mercy flows.

Angels, help us to adore him;
ye behold him face to face;
sun and moon, bow down before him,
dwellers all in time and space.
Praise him! Praise him!
Praise with us the God of grace.

Henry Francis Lyte (1793-1847)

Yours, Lord, is the greatness, the power, the glory, the splendour, and the majesty; for everything in heaven and on earth is yours.

All: All things come from you, and of your own do we give you.

The Eucharistic Prayer

Please remain standing

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.
We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give thanks and praise.

Father, we give you thanks and praise through your beloved Son Jesus Christ, your living Word, through whom you have created all things; who was sent by you in your great goodness to be our Saviour.

By the power of the Holy Spirit he took flesh; as your Son, born of the blessed Virgin, he lived on earth and went about among us; he opened wide his arms for us on the cross; he put an end to death by dying for us; and revealed the resurrection by rising to new life; so he fulfilled your will and won for you a holy people.

Therefore with angels and archangels, and with all the company of heaven, we proclaim your great and glorious name, for ever praising you and singing:

[Organ] mf Ho - ly, Ho - ly, Ho - ly Lord, God of po - wer and might, Hea - ven and earth are full of your glo - ry, Ho - san - na, Ho - san - na, Ho - san - na in the high - est. mf Bles - sed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. ff Ho - san - na, Ho - san - na, Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Lord, you are holy indeed, the source of all holiness; grant that by the power of your Holy Spirit, and according to your holy will, these gifts of bread and wine may be to us the body and blood of our Lord Jesus Christ;

who, in the same night that he was betrayed, took bread and gave you thanks; he broke it and gave it to his disciples, saying: Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you; do this in remembrance of me.

In the same way, after supper he took the cup and gave you thanks; he gave it to them, saying: Drink this, all of you; this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.

Great is the mystery of faith:

Christ has died: Christ is ri - sen: Christ will come a - gain.

And so, Father, calling to mind his death on the cross, his perfect sacrifice made once for the sins of the whole world; rejoicing in his mighty resurrection and glorious ascension, and looking for his coming in glory, we celebrate this memorial of our redemption. As we offer you this our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving, we bring before you this bread and this cup and we thank you for counting us worthy to stand in your presence and serve you.

Send the Holy Spirit on your people and gather into one in your kingdom all who share this one bread and one cup, so that we, in the company of the blessed Virgin Mary and all the saints, may praise and glorify you for ever, through Jesus Christ our Lord;

by whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honour and glory be yours, almighty Father, for ever and ever. All: Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

As our Saviour taught us, so we pray

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Lead us not into temptation
but deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours
now and for ever. Amen.

The president breaks the consecrated bread.

We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.

All: Though we are many, we are one body, because we all share in one bread.

The Agnus Dei

[Organ] Lamb of God, you take a-way the sin of the world, have mer-cy on us. [Organ] Lamb of God, you take a-way the sin of the world, Grant us peace.

The Giving of Communion

Jesus is the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world. Blessed are those who are called to his supper.

All: Lord, I am not worthy to receive you, but only say the word, and I shall be healed.

Everyone in church is now invited to come forward to receive either communion or a blessing.

If you wish to receive the communion wine from the common cup, please receive communion at the chancel step.

If you wish to receive communion by intinction of the wafer in the wine please receive communion from the side-aisle.

Private devotion before Communion

In this Holy Eucharist, in humble thanksgiving for the life, suffering and resurrection of our Lord, may we offer to him ourselves, our souls and bodies.

Peter Nott

Communion Hymn

(REH 479)

Happy are they, they that love God, whose hearts have Christ confessed,
who by his cross have found their life,
and 'neath his yoke their rest.

Glad is the praise, sweet are the songs,
when they together sing;
and strong the prayers that bow the ear
of heaven's eternal King.

Christ to their homes giveth his peace,
and makes their loves his own:
but ah, what tares the evil one hath in his garden sown!

Sad were our lot, evil this earth, did not its sorrows prove the path whereby the sheep may find the fold of Jesu's love.

Then shall they know, they that love him,
how all their pain is good;
and death itself cannot unbind
their happy brotherhood.

Robert Seymour Bridges (1844-1930)
based on the Latin of Charles Coffin (1676-1749)

After Communion

Go before us, Lord, in all we do with your most gracious favour, and guide us with your continual help, that in all our works begun, continued and ended in you, we may glorify your holy name, and finally by your mercy receive everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All: Amen

Almighty God,
we thank you for feeding us
with the body and blood of your Son Jesus Christ.
Through him we offer you our souls and bodies
to be a living sacrifice.
Send us out in the power of your Spirit to live and work to your praise and glory.
Amen.

The notices are given and we hear from Children's Church.

Final Hymn

Please stand
(NEH 264)

All things bright and beautiful, all creatures great and small,
all things wise and wonderful,
the Lord God made them all.

Each little flower that opens,
each little bird that sings,
he made their glowing colours,
he made their tiny wings.

Refrain

The tall trees in the greenwood,
the meadows for our play,
the rushes by the water,
to gather every day;

Refrain

The purple-headed mountain,
the river running by,
the sunset, and the morning
that brightens up the sky;

Refrain

He gave us eyes to see them, and lips that we might tell
how great is God Almighty, who has made all things well.

Refrain

Mrs. Cecil Frances Alexander, (1818-1895)

The Dismissal

As a lighted candle is given to Frank & Ralph the priest says:

God has delivered us from the dominion of darkness and has given us a place with the saints in light. You have received the light of Christ; Walk in this light all the days of your life.

All: Shine as a light in the world to the glory of God the Father.

A member of the congregation gives a copy of the scriptures saying:

This book contains the good news of God's love. Read it, for it tells how you and your family can share in eternal life, through repentance and faith in Jesus Christ.

The peace of God, which passes all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord; and the blessing of God almighty, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you always.

All: Amen

Let us go in peace to love and serve the Lord.

All: In the name of Christ. Amen

Please remain standing and in your places until the procession has left the church.

Please join us for coffee immediately after the service.

No Breakfast Club in March

There will be no Breakfast Club in March so that SEARCH can focus on the Pancake Party!!

First Communion

We are hoping to admit new members to receive Holy Communion on Easter Day. This is for those young people aged 7 and above. More details will follow in due course, but if you think your young person might be interested in receiving communion, and being prepared to do so, please speak to the clergy.

Celebrating '2023 and Beyond' & Sponsor a Chair

Thank you to all who came to help us celebrate the completion of the 2023 and Beyond project. We had a beautiful service of Choral Evensong, followed by a talk from the Rector. Thanks to Sam, Adrian and the Choir for their music.

If you were unable to attend, or want to watch again, you can do so on our project page: <https://www.greathampden.org.uk/project>.

We also launched our Sponsor a Chair appeal. We need 20 new 'Theo' chairs that we can use for additional seating, and make possible more flexible use of our space. By making a donation of £325 to sponsor a chair, you will be playing an important part in helping our church reach its potential as a worshipping space and venue for small groups. Sponsorship can be made by an individual, a family or a group of people. Sponsoring a seat in remembrance of someone who has died is a special way to honour their memory. We will record every sponsor and loved one remembered in a special book to be kept in perpetuity. <https://www.greathampden.org.uk/sponsorachair>

Wool Gatherers Update

The Wool Gatherers meet on a Tuesday morning in the Annex over coffee and a biscuit. We are a friendly bunch, knitting various projects for a number of charities.

Over the past year we have made 22 teddies and 8 baby blankets for local baby units and children's wards, 41 fishermen hats for the seaman's mission, 2 prayer shawls, 4 bed blankets from 6” squares, 270 baby hats for Wexham Park maternity unit and over 200 items for the autumn fair. Not bad for just a dozen of us who spend more time nattering than knitting!

If you would like to support us, donations for us to purchase brightly coloured double-knit wool are always welcome. A 100g ball costs about £3 now and would knit 7 or 8 squares, or lots of little hats. A baby blanket needs 16 squares. A prayer shawl costs £10 to knit. Watch out for our new project, Chickens and Bunnies for Easter! Anyone is always welcome to join us. Barbara Paterson

Why? A Programme of Exploration

Why? is our new programme for exploring our faith together. Throughout 2025 there will be a series of events intended to deepen our understanding of faith and discipleship.

As we meet together, we hope that you will learn more about your personal faith, the faith of our Church, and the Christian faith. Deepening our own understanding and working together to help share Jesus’ love with our community. All the sessions will take place in one of our churches, and last 1.5 hours. Most sessions will follow a structure of talk, table discussion, Q&A. Some will invite external speakers, and some will be led ‘in-house’.

Whilst there is no specific need to book for these sessions, we are asking that you sign up, either in church or online. This gives us an idea of numbers for refreshments, resources and tables. More details can be found here: <https://www.htprestwood.org.uk/why> or by picking up a printed programme at the back of church.

Palm Crosses

Each year we burn the previous year's Palm Crosses to make the ash for Ash Wednesday. Please return your palm crosses by Sunday 02nd March.

Lent Course | Come and See

This Lent we will be using the Diocese's Come and See resource. 'This Lent, explore what it means to be human and what it means to be baptised as a Christian. The two questions belong very closely together. Come and See is for people exploring faith and Christians who have been coming to church for years. You'll receive a daily email and a weekly short video in Lent. Come and See how these life-giving reflections will enrich your life.'

The first session will be the theme of our reflective service for Ash Wednesday, 5th March, 6.30pm. The remaining 5 sessions will then take place each Wednesday, 6.30pm, in the Annexe.
